

Present

For International Women's Day 2019

WOMEN IN ACTION

8th March 18:30 – 21:45

A special event at the beautiful EUC building in Rotterdam Blaak, featuring:

- An international feminist art gallery curated by Jasmijn van der Linden, with women artists from the Netherlands, the UK and Zimbabwe.
- Live Music celebrating 'womanhood, by great female artists', performed by Tim van Breemen, Jonas Nabbe and Gina de Boer.
- Three inspiring women speakers to share their vision for women in action in the fields of sports, business and art.
- An art sale for charity: come support young artists, and parts of the proceeds will go to the FairFight Foundation to help young women in Zimbabwe and India.
- Drinks and snacks free with each ticket!
- Any profits from ticket sales will go to the FairFight foundation: www.fairfight.nl!

Schedule:

18:30 : Doors open, get a drink, look at the artworks, visit the art stands, listen to live music.

19:15 : Speakers event in Lecture Hall A, with Lijnie Reiers, Sarah Hopkins and Aynouk Tan.

20:45 : Meet-and-greet the artists, visit art stands, listen to live music, enjoy more drinks!

21:45 : Event ends, doors close at 22:00.

Entrance Fee: €10 | Student Discount: € 5

Pay at the entrance

Lijnie Reiers

Lijnie Reijers defines herself as: woman, mother, wife, lady-boss, clinical behavioural scientist (ortho-pedagogue), martial artist (aikido), citizen. She lives to integrate all the diverse roles she sees for herself and wishes to fulfill.

Sarah Hopkins

Director and owner of a boutique recruitment agency in London, with 20 years of experience in recruitment, specializes in promoting female talent.

Aynouk Tan

Aynouk Tan observes fashion from an anthropological point of view. As a journalist, curator and art-director she discusses how the clothes we wear constitutes our identity and perceptions. She curated multiple exhibitions and frequently lectures at (inter)national art academies and universities.

Venue Address:

Erasmus University College
Nieuwemarkt 1A – 3011 HP Rotterdam