

We love 2015..... So far!

2015 may be the Chinese year of the Goat/Sheep but it is already proving the HopkinsLongworth year of new business!

We are loving this New Year and not sure how it has got to be mid February so swiftly....

So far 2015 has seen new clients – household brand names as well as more boutique businesses engaging us on UK and international searches which is fantastic and a true testament to our trusted relationships.

Never one to rest on our laurels we continue to work hard focusing on our wonderful longstanding clients, great candidates and are really delighted that we are seeing these super results.

We have a busy pipeline and some interesting events coming up – including a Leadership Seminar at the end of April being run by our partners ‘Lloydmasters – the alternative consultancy’.

If you are a senior business leader interested in developing your skill set do contact us or Lloydmasters directly for further information about this invitation only event.
